Two people who have just met end up madly in love within a couple of days! He is a true master at capturing the moments of grace and humanity in true-to-life situations and presenting that slice of life within a short story.

Also I find it disconcerting that the female lead is the one who has to take care

It was a really quick read and I will look for other early books by JE. Lists with This Book. On the eve of the millennium, two families collide.

The novel and the short story are two entirely different crafts. This really was an enjoyable book, peopled with many likeable characters.

A pity, because this novel would have done well if they were short stories that examined the lives of some of these characters or showed a part of their lives.
