Language Variation accepted Bullock, Barbara E. Students with good reading and listening knowledge of French are welcome.
She is a software developer. We've had a lot of practice with this! Along with Jacqueline Toribio, I co-direct the BATs Forcea research project where we are attempting to automate the processing and annotation of bilingual texts, using the tools of natural language processing. I can't recommend it .
How can we distinguish language variation due to contact from internal variation
