This suggests that the solid, fixed sense of self most of us have is at least partly an illusion that allows us to avoid the mental distress that comes with multiple identities. It truly feels like this mother and her family has been through the refiner's fire. Lists with This Book.

Ifoundthestoryveryinteresting,andIverymuchappreciatetheauthor'sco Her voice sounded genuinely worried. I worry that her story will continue to make people feel afraid of DID and other mental illnesses when it doesn't need to be that way. Again,it'sdifficulttosaysomethinglikethat,becauseIcan'tjudgetheau when I asked her about it, she told me she appreciated college towns and academic-type people and therefore was one.
