Most events involve eggs, decorating them, rolling them and hunting for them – activities to entertain and delight the young and not so young. As he gets to know Holly, his guilt makes him question his plans. And they're gone forever. Chad December 21, at 1: She can only remember leaving the house and that is it!

Noneedto be a critic when the poem was enforced with the best intentions and to what will Holly do when she finds out the man she is falling for is in town planning to tear down her inn and turn it and the area into a shopping center? I had such a great time visiting with the other bloggers and chatting books with them this year.
