Do you practice discernment in your hobbies, your career ambitions, your friendships, and even your meditations in order to live in the presence of God? They are prone to discord—they are always in a fight with somebody.

And this is my prayer: They are satisfied, thinking no more growth is needed.

What are further characteristics of this love? If we are not abiding in him, we cannot produce fruits. A mature Christian is growing in the knowledge of Scripture.

Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. From personal experience the counseling industry has become large primarily because people need a place to share the issues they are hiding and not telling anybody.
