The ideas here are radical to our current way of thinking, yet amazingly simple and profound. His prose immediately brings to mind the poetry of Wordsworth ".

Wherever he went in the countryside he found himself in awe of the beauty and tranquility. His words just flow off the page and take you to a place of silent contemplation of the life and the world in which we live. The Copenhagen Interpretation of quantum physics invokes consciousness as the source of a probability wave collapse that brings into existence a material particle where before there was only probability.
