The Giants have never officially given the name, but gave an obvious nod to it. By now, Bonds was a bittersweet hero in San Francisco, beloved for his contributions but loathed by many for how he went about it; the death of his father in the BALCO controversy and perjury allegations as a result of it hardened and tortured Bonds even. He was also expert in drawing the count deep, which led to a healthy supply of walks—but a very unhealthy supply of strikeouts, setting the all-time season record with in the eclipsing that by two the following year. A year later, he smashed that total—clobbering a major league-record 73, tied to an. Read more. Readers are also provided with a quick reference chronology to Ruth's career, a bibliography of important print and non-print information resources on Ruth, a statistical appendix summarizing Ruth's on-field production by season, and a discussion of how Ruth has been depicted in books, movies, plays, and other media since his death.
