And on page the same commentary says concerning Matthew How would you define the Holy Spirit in this sense? The Hebrew in both instances is sheol.

The meaning and context behind these two words is completely lost with the NIV. The Lutherans have crashed. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

My discernment of the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, is that Jesus is speaking. If this were all we had, we might conclude that all it takes is a slip of the tongue, and we are metaphorical toast.
