Assisi is pretty but busy, though the Basilica di San Francesco is unmissable. When you come to the end, turn left and walk down the road through the historic apartments until you see the ducal palace which is now the Università' dei Stranieri di Perugia City Guide 2016. The church has some fine 15th and 16th century architecture, a good collection of Renaissance art, including frescoes and paintings by Raphael, Vasari, Vassillacchi, Perugino and Parmigiano and possibly the best wooden choir 16th century in Italy.
