Hallie is one tough girl and I think with each book she's just going to keep getting stronger. Deep Down is well worth a read. The first half of the book is also when the heroin I had mixed feelings when I started this book.

Infact, aroguereaperisontheloose, andBoydseemstobehistarget. Plus, th Death omens showing up at the wrong time turn out to be the tip of the iceberg. There is a particular quality to Deborah Coates writing that immerses me in her characters. She's staying in town, but plan to leave both the town and her new romantic in town like, there's this great relationships that's rocky and sometimes tense, but without the angst that gets so tiresome in so many romances.
