Uneven but worth a read. I'm glad, I guess, that they got everyone out in the end although we don't see much of the rebuilt world afterward but this isn't my type of story. It took me months to get through this one trade. It's good, but it has potential to be even better. While I didn't like the rushed ending, and I won't spoil anything here, but the epilogue left me wondering about it's meaning for a couple of days. They all reside in a tiny, dying town that only becomes entertaining when the vacationers arrive in the summer and winter. Return to Book Page. Sign up here to receive your FREE alerts.
