Others have done well in their summation of the events that occur so I won't reiterate them here. The description of this book does a good job of telling you what the book is. Armed with this knowledge Joel is faced with many challenges, he is at risk of making a wrong move and changing history and even his own destiny.

I really liked the instant tension the author presents by thrusting Joel into a situation that he did not intend. A bittersweet love story that touches the heart and will leave you with both tears in your eyes and a smile on your face.

John A. Heldt, Publisher: So, I highly advise you to read The Mine! From the historical point of view, as far as I know, John has paid very close attention to the details which is highly commendable. Impatient Joel discovered a gravelly, dirt road as a detour and decided to explore.
