An interesting read with some rather unusual characters. Favorite quote about marriage, "She gave Alexandre a withering look that would have been rude had he not been her husband. AmazonDriveCloudstoragefromAmazon.Hercousinisagovernmentinsider, a Which wasn't hard to follow, but it was a swerve from what I expected. After an auto executive is murdered in the kitchen of a famed restaurant, Parisian detective Capucine LeTellier tries to crack the case, with the help of three comical detectives, her food-critic husband and her inappropriately flirtatious cousin, who also happens to be a government agent. This is another skillfully constructed mystery from the talented Campion.
