It would perhaps properly denote a sea monster; yet it may be applied to a serpent. Who can number up the sins of a life? On the whole, it seems to me that these inscriptions are to be regarded as a part of the inspired record, and as having the authority of inspiration.

The exultation of the righteous is such a result, Psalm It is obvious, however, that if the meaning is that they were composed by "the sons of Korah," this furnishes no information as to the individual authorship of the psalms. Here the word undoubtedly refers to the written revelation of the will of God as far as it was then made known. Life has been arrested, and death, with its consequences, has ensued.

He was, by the appointment of God, the civil and military ruler of the nation. The truth of this no one can doubt; and its beauty is equal to its truth.
