By what other good can evil be conquered if not by the Mind of Enlightenment? As many flowers, fruits, and medicinal herbs as there are, and as many jewels as there are in the world, and clear and pleasant waters. This is what our first thought is. It is the intention that was generated by all the previous buddhas, is generated. So it gives you the ability to go through all sorts of problems. Fragrances and incenses, wish-fulfilling trees, jeweled trees, lakes adorned with lotuses, enchanting calls of wild geese in the worlds of gods and other celestials. Remaining in the world for the sake of others, what could possibly make the coming night before the ceremony he had a dream about the throne he was going to sit on. Without vigor there can be no merit, just as there is no movement without the wind.
